

The image displays a musical score for the piece "Miss Eve Bramley's Jig". It consists of seven staves of music, all written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The first two staves are mostly empty, with only a few notes and rests. The third staff begins with a double bar line and contains a sequence of notes with upward-pointing accents. The fourth and fifth staves continue this melodic line with various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and some slurs. The sixth staff features a repeat sign and continues the melody. The seventh staff concludes the piece with a final note and a double bar line. The word "Violin" is written vertically to the right of the final staff.
