

Ballachulish Glen

John Cameron

Slow Air

The musical score for "Ballachulish Glen" is written in treble clef, key of D major (one sharp), and 3/4 time. It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a "Slow Air" tempo marking and a fermata over the first note. The melody is a simple, flowing line of notes and rests, ending with a double bar line on the fifth staff.

John Cameron was a native of Ballachuilish who served in Paisley as a policeman.
